

THE VERY REVEREND NEIL COLLINGS (1946-2010)

The Very Reverend Neil Collings died on Saturday 26 June. Neil was Rector of this Parish 1986-1999. He moved from St Nicholas, after a notably successful Rectorship, to be Canon Treasurer of Exeter Cathedral, and retired as Dean of St Edmundsbury in 2009 on the grounds of ill health. We have been remembering Neil here in our prayers for the sick.

You are invited to sign the Book of Condolence in the Chapel of the Nativity at St Nicholas Church, Church Green, Harpenden. The book will be sent on to Neil's family in due course as a token of this Parish's deep appreciation of his service here.

The date of a memorial service for Neil in Harpenden, which it is anticipated will be held in St Nicholas Church, will be announced once arrangements are completed.

There is more detail about Neil's life on the websites of Exeter and St Edmundsbury Cathedrals.
